

All India Heads of Police Communication Conference at Vigyan Bhawan, New Delhi

New Delhi, 19th November 2018: Directorate of Coordination Police Wireless (DCPW), a Nodal advisory body to the Ministry of Home Affairs for the Police Telecommunication in the Country is convening, All India Heads of Police Communication Conference on 19th & 20th November, 2018 at Vigyan Bhawan, New Delhi. The theme of the conference is “Modernization of Police Communication and Challenges thereof”.

Shri Manoj Sinha, Hon’ble Minister of State (I/C) for Communication and Minister of State for Railway inaugurated the Conference on 19th November, 2018 at Vigyan Bhawan. Shri Anand Swaroop, IPS, Director, DCPW, while welcoming the Hon’ble Minister, also addressed the delegates and the guests and thanked their presence in the Conference.

Hon’ble Minister also mentioned that, he was very much glad to be present among Senior Police Officers of the Country and congratulated Director, DCPW for organizing this Conference. He also appreciated that DCPW as a nodal agency for Police Communications is shouldering responsibility of bringing the Communication facilities to Police operations in a most effective manner, apart from various coordinated activities. Hon’ble Minister also told that he is glad to know that DCPW is manning a Nationwide Communication network connecting all States, Union Territories, CAPFs as an additional support to all these Organizations.

Joint Secretary (Police Modernization), MHA who has played instrumental role in organizing the Conference addressed Delegates and boosted their moral.

The purpose of the Conference is to bring all stakeholders together on one platform to address outstanding issues, share best practices, address all domains of Communication and encourage Innovation and Modernisation in the field of Communication. It also encourages Business concerns to offer their solutions to the challenges of Communication in India. It also provides platform for the showcase of Make In India and Start-up’s to exhibit their expertise and share experiences with stakeholders to hone their skills.

Shri Santosh Gangwar, Hon’ble Minister of State (Independent Charge), Ministry of Labour and Employment will address the delegates in the valedictory function on 20th November 2018. Besides, Trophy/Awards will also be conferred to State in different categories of excellence for Imparting Training in the field of Communication, Implementing Innovation Solution, Crypto methods for Encryption & Performing State in implementing modern Technology in Police Communication Network.